

Food Change Hypothesis Tool

Describe the Environment before the Disturbance	Sunlight and nutrients available to crops (producers), crops grow abundantly and there are less weed species. Secondary consumers have a plentiful supply of food.
Describe the Disturbance	Introduction of a pesticide to fields planted with crops to try to eradicate weed species. However, crops are pesticide resistant and therefore the weeds also develop a resistance.

Hypothesise the Changes to the Ecosystem Food Chain

