

Task: How does light affect plant growth?

To germinate and grow plants require soil, water and light. Light actively affects the growth of plants. Explore the effect of sunlight on the growth of plants by answering the following questions.

What does the growth in plants reflect?

What is phototropic response?

Explain how gravity can affect plant growth.

What is the name given to the way shoots grow?

What is the name given to the way roots grow?
