

Task: Verbal Communication

Your group must use verbal communication skills to create a newspaper dog. Then answer the following questions.

Tip: When answering the questions below, think about verbal communication strategies such as signals, tone, stress and voice inflection.

What was your group dynamic like?

What worked well during the task?

What would you change that did not work well?

What did each member contribute to the group?

When you communicated with each other what verbal communication techniques worked to communicate your ideas?

What verbal communication techniques could you use to improve the outcome of the task?